GC Police Clear 18 Burglaries This Week

Pair Nabbed Today; Boys Caught Tuesday Admit 16 Break-Ins

Granite City police—working extra hours to stem an increase in burglaries—charged, today that Police Lt. Leo Padgett apprehended David Milton, 20, no address listed, inside Berna's Service Station, 2101 East 24th street, at 3 a.m. today after the officer saw a second man drive away from the building.

On Tuesday, police cleared 18 burglaries with the apprehension of two 16-year-old youths. Chief Ronald Veizer said today that Police Lt. Leo Padgett apprehended David Milton, 20, no address listed, inside Berna's Service Station, 2101 East 24th street, at 3 a.m. today after the officer saw a second man drive away from the building.

Patrolmen in another vehicle were summoned by Lt. Padgett and arrested James L. Brandon, 21, of 1715 Olive street, in the 2300 block of Iowa street.

2nd Burglary Last Night
Chief Veizer said Berna's station had been entered by breaking a glass in the front, and he added that a similar burglary had been discovered a short time earlier at Virgil's Service Station, 15th and State streets. A rear window was broken there.

Found in the car were two five-gallon cans of oil, several smaller cans of oil and several hammers.

Chief Veizer said the local department's juvenile division is continuing to talk to the two 16-year-old boys who have admitted 16 break-ins since Jan. 12, including two Tuesday nights. Both youths have been released to their families.

Petty Cash Thefts
Most of the break-ins involved thefts of cash, Chief Veizer said, adding that these incidents by the youths began Jan. 12 with items stolen from an auto in the 2000 block of Grand avenue, followed by the motor vehicle by a break-in at Specialized Service, Inc.

The sheltered workshop facility, located at 2077 Madison avenue, was burglarized three times by the same youths on Jan. 16, Jan. 22 and Feb. 7. The youths were apprehended as they were walking in the 2000 block of Grand avenue, a few minutes earlier, break-ins at the Women's Beauty Shop, 2048 State street, and the offices of Sheppard Morgan and Associates, engineering firm at 2100 State street.

Taken from the business office was $32 in cash, including one $10 bill, one $5 bill and three $1 bills. The remainder was change removed from a soda machine which the youths had pried open.

Township May Bolt Levee District

Nameeki Board Seeks Report on Procedure For Withdrawal Action

A move to take Nameeki township out of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District because of the lack of aid for the township in solving mounting drainage problems was initiated by the Nameeki town board Tuesday night.

The board instructed its attorney, Nick Vassileff, to determine immediately the feasibility of such a move and the procedure necessary for the township to secede from the levee district. Vassileff is to report to the board on the matter at its next regular meeting.

The action was taken on the suggestion of Board Member Herbert Polley after a delegation of about 15 residents of the 1700-2300 blocks of Angela drive appeared before the board to protest the back-up of water in a slough that cuts through the area, adding another to a series of drainage problems that have been plaguing the township.

Nameeki Supervisor Harry Briggs pointed out that the township's need of more and better drainage facilities "is becoming desperate." He said, "Some kind of a program must be worked out—soon."

Received No Aid
Briggs said that he believed some of the township's problems should be the responsibility of the levee district in which Nameeki residents pay taxes, but that the township has received no aid from the levee district in recent years.

"Last year, township taxpayers paid $97,000 into the levee district, and what do we have to show for it?" Briggs continued.

He described the move to withdraw from the levee district as the first step "toward what ever program we can work out—possibly the establishment of township drainage district."

The Angela drive delegation told the board that the rising water of the slough in that area results from a blockage of culverts extending under the Alton & Southern railroad tracks almost a mile from where the homes are located. They asked township aid in clearing out the blockage which Briggs said was placed in the culverts by a property owner to prevent flooding.

U. S. Engineers to Get Plan To Rebuild Nameoki Ditch

Proposal to Rebuild the Nameoki Ditch

A proposal to rebuild the Nameoki area drainage ditch into a large underground stormwater sewer from its point of origin near Ponton road to Horseshoe Lake will be submitted to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to be included in plans for an area-wide Hillside Drainage project, it was learned today.

The proposal calls for excavating the ditch to a deeper depth and installing large stormwater sewer tile that would then be covered over to entirely eliminate the open ditch.

Increased drainage capacity in the ditch is considered essential since the new Granite City stormwater sewer will hook into the canal to drain into Horseshoe Lake. Engineers have predicted almost certain flooding in periods of heavy rains if Nameoki area ditch remains in its present condition.

Ebersoldt said plans for rebuilding the Nameoki area ditch is the first step in a program to include in the overall Hillside Drainage project all improving properly drained areas in Madison and St. Clair counties, regardless of whether those areas are regular levee district properties.

"Unless we can eliminate conditions that result in lakes of standing surface water every time it rains, then the Hillside Drainage project will not do a complete job," Ebersoldt said. He added that he has been touring the Madison county area to determine all locations in which drainage problems should be solved by the Hillside Drainage project.

Boyd, Partney Face Mayoralty Runoff April

Running Again—April 18500 Go to Polls — Boyd Receives Tally Of 4099; Partney, 3863

(Chart on page 4)
Mayor Donald Partney and Third Ward Aldermen Clyde "Bus" Boyd must compete for election as mayor in the April 1 city election as a result of Tuesday's primary balloting in which neither candidate mustered the greater than 50% vote necessary to put him in office.

In a neck-and-neck race which left the two top contenders for the mayoralty post only 236 votes apart in the final unofficial tally, Boyd polled 4099 votes to Partney's 3863 on the basis of unofficial returns.

The third primary candidate, Wally E. Schellenger, polled a total of 532 votes in all 29 precincts.

44% Turnout
More than 8500 Granite City voters turned out for the primary balloting, representing about 44% of the city's 19,476 total voter registration. An official figure on the total vote cast will await a canvass by city council members.

The unofficial tally compiled by City Clerk Homer "Cal" Pendleton gives Boyd 48.2% of the vote cast, Partney 45.3% and Schellenger 6.5%.

Under Illinois law, the mayor's office may be won in the primary by any candidate polling a majority of more than 50% of the total vote cast. Other wise the two candidates receiving the highest vote are nominated for a runoff in the regular city election.

While some spoiled ballots were cast, Pendleton said yesterday the number was so small there could be no change in the total vote figures, and therefore would not change the fact that a runoff election will be necessary in April.

Ward 7 Vote Heavy
The primary balloting was slightly heavier than had been anticipated by some political observers who expected a total vote of from 6000 to 8000. In Ward Seven alone, a total vote of 1023 was cast for the three mayoralty candidates in Precinct Two, and another 420 were cast by all three candidates in Precinct One.

Extremely tight balloting was reported by several precincts. In Precinct One, only 83 votes were cast, while in Precinct Two of Ward Five only 97 votes were cast. Four precincts reported votes of more than 400 while seven other precincts reported total votes ranging from 300 to 400 ballots.

The tally of votes from all 29 voting precincts showed that Boyd received majorities in 19 precincts, with the other ten going to Partney. Schellenger placed third in every precinct.

Boyd Wins 4 Wards
Boyd also took majorities in the total votes cast in four wards: the other three going to Partney. Boyd received his ward majorities in Wards One, Three, Five and Six while Partney captured Wards Two, Four and Seven. Boyd lives in Ward Three, where he presently is an

Extend Deadline On Jr. College Tuition Refunds

The Granite City school board, holding its first session in its new offices at 20th and Adams streets Monday night, voted to accept junior college tuition applications at any time prior to the start of a semester, quarter or term.

Previous policy, based on state law, was to accept requests for the new school year only up to July 1. The legislation since has permitted school districts to choose a later deadline.

Amounts paid for tuition by the Granite City district totaled $1106 in 1968-69, $700 the following year and $2629 in 1968-69.

About 10 to 12 applicants have been rejected each year, administrators estimated.

Reasons for the later applications were a later decision to attend a junior college, a move into the district after July 1, mid-year transfers from other colleges to the Belleville Junior College, discharges of senior men after the deadline and unfamiliarity with the deadline, particularly among those registering for the spring semester.

$14,299 Library Grant
In other action, the board formally obligated $14,299 for acquisition of library materials. A grant of that amount under Title II of the Elementary and Secondary Act has been approved by the state and federal governments.

A contract with DeMoulin Brothers — on rental of high school "studios," caps and gowns and provision of sign tassels which can be retained by the seniors—was renewed by the board for a three-year period.

Real fee will be $3 and the (Continued on page 4, col. 3)

Dear Jackie:

I've just rearranged my living room furniture and there are deep marks in my carpet where the legs of the couch and chairs used to set. I've tried everything, but I just can't get them out. What do I do, put the furniture back where it was, or just put up with the dents?

"MARKED" WOMAN
Granite City

Dear Marked:

We've had quite a few people ask the same question, and the answer is in your kitchen sink. Just take a cup of tap water, pour into the dent area and brush the knap up with your fingers. The water will shrink the dye back into the carpet and bring the knap back up to its original level. When you take the cup back to the kitchen, take a look at the floor in there and think of the hours you've spent scrubbing and waxing it! This is the way to fix a piece of furniture. It's not a "Mowak" kitchen, carrying in beautiful tangerine tweed for only $7.48 a square yard. Tell your husband you're thinking about some "rearranging" in the kitchen!

Dear Jackie:

We've had wall to wall carpeting for years, and its reached the "in-between" stage. It's too good to throw out, and so old we're tired of it. It's clean, and not too badly worn, but it just seems dull. Every time we buy a new piece of furniture, we end up with the same old colors to match the same old carpet. I know it's a tough one, but if you can solve this problem you're a real winner.

HOPEFUL
Madison, Ill.

Dear Hope:

You're the real winner, in ATKINS FEBRUARY TRADE-IN! You can trade in that old carpet for new and save up to $70, $80 or $90! Select the carpet of your choice, from our $2.49 a yard "501" nylon, to our most expensive wool and your old carpet trade-in allowance will pay for quite a lot of it. ATKINS Floor Covering can then re-sell it to someone looking for good used carpeting for a family room, basement, or wherever they wish to install it. Remember, that "old" carpet that you're tired of is brand new to someone that can use it. Call 831-4000 today, and Dick or Jim Atkins will come to your home, estimate your trade-in allowance and show you samples of many beautiful carpets, just perfect for your home.

If you have problems with floor covering, send your questions to "DEAR JACKIE," c/o Atkins Floor Covering, 3780 Pontoon Rd., Granite City, Illinois.

of local sponsorship, would cost an estimated $12 millions under the original plans of several years ago. Because of new problems and increased construction costs, however, this estimate is expected to be revised upward.

State sponsorship of the program with funds to provide matching shares for federal grants has been pledged by state officials.

Eberhold said yesterday that improvement of the Namooki area ditch "will be one of my priority projects" because of the danger of flooding. He said that he believes all critical drainage areas such as those in Namooki township, including the Long Lake area, should be included in the Hillside Drainage program.

"There are similar problems in parts of St. Clair county that also must be included," Eberhold added. "We hope to make a complete study of such areas and submit them also to the Army Engineers."

Boyd, Partney

alderman, and Partney lives in St. Louis.

A breakdown of precinct tallies shows that Boyd's majorities were polled in all five precincts of Ward One, in Precinct Four of Ward Two; all four precincts of Ward Three; Precinct One, Three and Four of Ward Four; and Precinct One, Four and Five of Ward Five, and all three precincts of Ward Six.

Partney polled majorities in Precincts One, Two and Three of Ward Two; Precincts Two, Five and Six of Ward Three; Precincts One and Three of Ward Four; and Precinct One of Ward Five, and both precincts of Ward Six.

Mayor Partney received his biggest majorities in the two Ward Seven precincts in the Namooki area where he polled 550 votes to 380 for Boyd in Precinct Two and 224 votes to 168 for Boyd in Precinct One. Schellenger received 28 votes in Precinct Two and 102 votes in Precinct Two of Ward Seven.

Boyd defeated Partney by a total of 579 to 301 in the five precincts of Ward One where Schellenger polled 53 votes. Partney topped Boyd by a total of 730 to 462 in the four precincts of Ward Two, with Schellenger receiving 81 votes in that ward.

In Ward Three—Boyd's home ward—Boyd polled 588 to 400 for Partney and 63 for Schellenger in all four precincts, while in Ward Four Partney carried all six precincts by a total of 716 to 596 for Boyd, with Schellenger polling 87 votes.

Boyd carried Ward Five by a vote of 703 to 461, with 61 votes going to Schellenger. In the three precincts of Ward Six also gave Boyd the majority of 613 to 412 for Partney and 77 for Schellenger.

While Boyd carried all four precincts in his home Ward Three, the majorities were small in all instances to give him a ward majority of only 188 votes over Partney. In Precinct One Boyd polled 143 to 123 for Partney, a majority of 20, while in Precinct Two Boyd received 206 votes to 116 for Partney, a majority of 90. Boyd's tally in Precinct Three was 155, a majority of 52 over Partney's 103. Partney gave Boyd 94 votes to 68 for Partney, a majority of 26.

Tuesday's balloting was the first Granite City primary in many years and was required under election law amendments making primaries mandatory in communities where more than two candidates file in the regular election April 1 in which the mayor's run-off will be held. Mayor Partney said the vote canvass will be conducted during the regular city council meeting Monday night.

Board Committee To Report on Voting Devices

A special committee of the Madison county board of supervisors which is checking on various types of voting machines and electronic voting devices will report next Wednesday to the county board on its inspection Tuesday of the electronic voting system in use in Aurora, Ill.

The committee, headed by Arthur Braundmeyer, supervisor of Wood River township, witnessed operation of the Aurora system during a city primary election there Tuesday, and described the voting operation as highly efficient.

Making the trip in addition to Braundmeyer were Board Chairman Harold Landolt, County Clerk Eulalia Hotz, Supervisor of Wood River township, and assistant supervisors Carl Roach of Granite City and Leslie Pecht of Wood River township.

Supervisor Harry Briggs of Namooki township also is a member of the inspection committee but was unable to join the inspection tour.

Briggs said the Aurora system requires only small punching machines at the polling places where voters punch a card that goes into the ballot box. When the precincts close the cards are taken to a computer center where they are run through a computer that tabulates the vote. He said voting results of the city's 73 precincts were completed by 8:30 p.m., two and a half hours after the polls closed.

Strike Water

The work was under way only a few hours today when the back-hoe used for excavation struck water at a depth of four feet, forcing a halt in the operation.

Briggs said installation of the four-foot tile to Long Lake is the first step in a drainage project that will include later the installation of branch lines from the four-foot tile to Breckenridge lane, along Garden lane. This should relieve much of the flash flooding from heavy rainfall that has plagued the area.

While a 16-inch drainage line was built many years ago through the area, it has been plugged and is now directing surface waters into Long Lake. The line extends mostly through private property, Briggs said, and the township has no easements for it.

A Critical Situation

Briggs said that flooding and drainage difficulties are building up to a critical situation in parts of the township because of a combination of factors. He pointed out that nine new subdivisions have been built in recent years resulting in heavier run-offs of surface drainage during heavy rains.

He pointed out that virtually all drainage in the township area is directed into Long Lake, which, in turn, drains into Horseshoe Lake. Because of the high level of Horseshoe Lake during rainy periods, Long Lake is unable to drain.

"Long Lake hasn't gone down an inch in recent weeks," Briggs said, noting that other low-lying areas are unable to drain into Long Lake when it is bank full.

"If we had a really heavy rain we would be in desperate straits," Briggs said.

Extend Deadline

caps and gowns will be available from the May 12 recognition assembly through May 29 commencement exercises.

No expenditure of school funds is involved. The $3 caps with an earlier charge of $3.25, with a tassel charge of $5 cent was paid from senior class boat excursion funds. Excursion funds are no longer available.

Amplex Corp. was hired for $500 or less to televise the high school graduation and project it on a 12-foot screen for those attending in addition to persons accommodated at the site of the graduation ceremonies.

Two Winning Candidates Gear For April 1 Vote

An intensified campaign for the April 1 mayoralty election was forecast in political circles today following Tuesday's nomination of incumbent Mayor Donald Partney and Third Ward Alderman Clyde "But" Boyd as candidates for the mayor's office.

Both candidates referred in statements following the primary balloting to the light turnout of the election, claiming slightly more than 8500 voters—and said they will work, to ward greater voter response in the April 1 election.

Interest in the approaching campaign stems from the close race of the two candidates. Boyd polled 4699 votes in all 29 precincts of Granite City's seven wards, while Partney polled 3863. Neither of the candidates polled sufficient votes to win election in the primary.

First of Its Kind

In a post-election statement yesterday, Partney noted that Tuesday's election was the first of its particular nature in the city's history and that the choice of candidates was "by a small number of voters."

The importance of the election was made April 1 in the primary election.

Partney added that "Some recent developments of highly emotional nature did tend to cloud over the main issue but, this is the case in any election. The public must be depended upon to strip off the emotional issues and judge with what calm it can muster."

"I have great faith in the people of our city and I believe they recognize the progress we have made together in the past four years. I seek to continue working with you and for you and have submitted the only positive proposals for the future."

The mayor expressed his thanks for the support he received and said that "our free system of government would fall if it were not for people who run for election and by doing so challenge the thinking policies and programs of those holding office. Public officials must be accountable to the people and that accountability is best assured through opposition."

Freedom of Mind

"To each man seeking public office, I would say in the future, I would observe that winning an election is meaningless if you are not in a position to serve in total freedom of your own mind and conscience."

Boyd, in a brief comment, said that while there had been a fair turnout for the primary and a good day for an election, "I regret that we didn't have more voters go to the polls. He, too, expressed his thanks to his supporters and to volunteers who assisted in his campaign."

"I think everyone needs a break but we plan to get busy reorganizing and learning why we had some weak spots in places that we did," Boyd said.

The turnout of voters in Tuesday's primary represented about 44% of the registered voters in Granite City—a total of 19,476. The vote was heavier than anticipated by some observers on charges of peace disturbance and intoxication.

Large Cache of Drugs Seized by Madison Deputies

Seizure of a narcotic cache of morphine, phenobarbital and cocaine-based medicine, described as the largest ever found in Madison county, was made by Madison county deputy sheriffs Demos Nichols and Robert Rizzi on Monday.

They said the recovered drugs included five ampules of morphine, a package of phenobarbital containing 40 capsules, and 18 bottles of cocaine medicine. Nicholas and Rizzi declined to reveal where they found the drugs pending further investigation.

Nicholas said today there have been no arrests in the case thus far.

The deputies said all of the bottles had federal seals on them, indicating the drugs in the bottles could be obtained only through prescriptions.

Some of the bottles had been opened and labels had been scratched off others.

Nicholas and Rizzi said they were unable to estimate the overall value of the drugs but placed a value of $2500 on the morphine tablets in pure form. Each ampule of morphine held 20 tablets.

The deputies said they are investigating the case in an attempt to learn the origin of the drugs as well as their intended destination.

Area Steelworkers Vote In Race for President

United Steelworkers living in Granite City had the opportunity to vote twice on Tuesday once in the balloting on election of the United Steelworkers of America president and again in the Granite City mayor primary election.

Some political workers in the city election pointed out, in fact, that supporters of Clyde "Buz" Boyd, representative of the Granite City subdistrict USWA office and candidate for mayor in the primary balloting, found a steady supply of voters by picking up steelworkers balloting at their respective polling places in the USWA election, and taking them from there directly to their city polling places.

Steelworkers throughout the Granite City subdistrict, which made up of southern Illinois locals, voted Tuesday in the contest between L. W. Abel, incumbent president of the 120,000 member United Steelworkers union, and his opponent Emil Narick, a relatively unknown union lawyer.

Lloyd McBride, director of USWA District 34 which includes the Granite City subdistrict, said today that District 34 tallies from 143 of the 149 locals gave Abel 8720 votes to 1881 for Narick.

At the national level, Abel was reported leading Narick by 182,000 to 100,000 this morning. Official results of the election will not be made known until each local has certified its voting results to the national headquarters, which should be completed around May 1.

GCHS District Wrestling Meet Friday, Saturday

A long climb, perhaps to a second state wrestling championship, will be started by Granite City high school wrestlers this weekend.

They have taken part in 31 of the 32 state tournaments, and scored in all but one they have entered, the exception being a shutout in 1950.

State records held by the Warriors include 15 straight sectional titles, and the most state tournament points scored by a non-champion team, 41 in 1957. Their last individual state champion was Bill Fuchs two years ago.

This weekend at the GCHS memorial gym, the first step to the state finals will be conducted, as the Warriors host district competition starting with the first round at 7 p.m. Friday, and followed Saturday by semifinals at 1:30 p.m. and finals at 7 p.m.

12 Schools to Compete
Other schools competing in the tournament here will be Alton, Bethalto City Memorial, East St. Louis, Lincoln, East St. Louis, Edwardsville, Highland, Litchfield, Plattsburgh, Southwestern, Roxana, Vandalia and Wood River.

The tournament manager is Joe Fedora, Granite City school district athletic director. There will be 284 downstate and suburban schools entered in the tournament, with an increase of 21 schools over 1968, and another all-time high.

Last year, DeKalb high school won its first state wrestling crown. DeKalb and East Leyden fought a fierce dual before DeKalb won the championship by a one-point, 27-26. Decatur high school, remaining a strong contender throughout the tournament, finished third with 25 points.

Four district meets will lead into each of seven sectional centers, where winners of the first two district places in each of 12 weight classifications will advance to sectional competition Feb. 21-22.

State Finals March
The first and second place wrestlers in the sectionals will advance along with Chicago wrestlers to the state finals Feb. 28 and March 1 at the University of Illinois Assembly Hall, Champaign.

The Warriors finished the 1968-69 season with a 16-0 dual meet record, scoring 327 points and allowing 187 against them. In tournament competition, the Warriors won at Savanna, at Hazelwood and at home in their own holiday tournament over Christmas vacation.

Season totals, including the tournament results, show the Warriors ending with 233 wins, 108 losses and eight draws for a total of 349 points (five for wins and three for point victories).

Coach William Schmitt said at the start of the season that the Warriors lacked experience at both ends of the 12 weight classifications. However, as in past seasons, the competition itself has provided the desired maturity.

Tournament Entries
Meet the district Warriors: 95 pounds — Bruce Miller, sophomore; won 13, lost 14 for a total of 51 team points. Two years of experience at the junior level, competing for Coolidge last season. Brother of Bob Miller, who wrestles in the next weight.

103 — Bob Miller, senior; won 29, lost 13 for 120 team points. Has 17 pins this season. Captain of the squad; lettered for two years, district champion at 95 in 1967, district champion at 103 in 1968 and qualified for state meet in 1968. In 1967, had an 11-6 record; 1968, 17-4. Career record of 97-15. Missed first half of 1967 season with fractured wrist and half of the 1968 season with an appendectomy. Wrestled two years at Coolidge. Lettered in 1968 at 103 pounds with seven wins and 19 losses. Northwest tournament champion in 1969.

145 — Sam Nghoghoian, senior; will replace Alex Tarpoft, a senior, who was injured in last Saturday's semifinals of the Southwestern Conference meet. Nghoghoian has won four varsity bouts and lost two for 14 team points. Two years experience in junior high school. Won two and lost two a year ago.

154 — Rick Smith, senior, tri-captain; won 25 and lost three for 107 team points. Has 14 pins; holiday, Savanna and GCHS holiday tournament champion. Lettered in 1967 and 1968; sixth in state at 145 pounds in 1968 with 22-8 record; district champ in 1968. 1967 record of seven wins and 11 losses. Career record of 54-22. Wrestled at Prather.

Had 1967 record of eight wins, 13 losses and two ties at 160 pounds; 1968 record of 7-42 at 165 pounds. Missed first two months of 1968 season with knee operation. Was a junior high school wrestler.

180 — Bob Pates, senior; won 24 and lost nine for 109 team points. Has 14 pins this season. Lettered in 1968 with 19-13 record. Champion of Savanna, holiday and Hazelwood tournaments. Wrestled at Coolidge.

Heavyweight — Mark Mizerski, sophomore; weighs 245 pounds. Has won seven, lost 12 and tied two for 37 team points. First year on varsity squad. Wrestled at Coolidge.

First-round district pairings are based on records turned in by each school. However, in sectional competition, entrants draw to determine who they wrestle, and "wrestle backs" are used.

In a wrestle back, the first-place wrestler is champion after the final round, but the second-place finisher must defend his No. 2 position, and the right to advance to the state, by defeating the third-place finisher.

The Warriors have six district entries who competed in last year's district competition — Bob Miller, Christopher, Niebur, Smith, Wallace and Pates.

Favored Grapplers
Coach Schmitt cites the following as being among the outstanding wrestlers at each weight division:

95 — Fred Miller of East St. Louis, top rated in this area; placed second in last year's district at Carbondale.

103 — Bob Miller of Granite City and Calvin Jones of East St. Louis. They have met twice; Miller pinned him in the holiday tournament and beat him on points in last year's sectional tournament.

108 — The Warriors' basketball team had a seven-game winning streak snapped Monday evening at Belleville West, losing 71-61.

The Warriors trailed 20-16, 38-32 and 52-45 at the quarters. Scoring for the 10-8 Warriors were Eric Stuber 18, John Ireland 16, Mike DeRunk 10, Don Harris nine, Rich Moore four and Bob Swan and Mike Wilson, two each.

All-Star Boys Join Mitchell College
All-stars of the third-third grades Jerry West and Oscar Robertson Divisions will compete at the halftime of a Kook All-Stars vs. Mitchell Athletic club game Monday at the Mitchell school gym. Action will start at 7:15 p.m.

Tickets will be available at the door and are being sold by Mitchell AC members.

112 — Al Bridgeman of Granite City and Jerry Bedwell of Roxana. Earlier this season, Bridgeman pinned him, but Bedwell wasn't at his best, coming back from a siege in the flu. If they meet again, a close bout is considered likely.

120 — Bill Waymeyer of Wood River and George Britwiser of Southwestern Plaza.

127 — Mike Christopher of Granite City "should have the inside track."

133 — Mike Freitag of Edwardsville should have no problems. He was the Southwestern Conference champion holiday tournament champ.

Niebur Unbeaten in District
138 — Tom Niebur of Granite City "hasn't lost a bout to anyone in the district."

MHS Scene of Cougar-Sanford Tilt Saturday

The StU-SW Cougars, after an 11-day layoff from the basketball wars, will resume competition Saturday by meeting the Sanford-Brown College team of St. Louis in a game to be played at the Madison high school gym.

Tipoff for the varsity game is 8 p.m., but the freshman squad of Coach Eldon Bigham will play a curtain-raiser against the Sanford frosh team beginning at 6:15 p.m.

Coach Harry Gallatin's varsity, which is finishing its second season of inter-collegiate basketball, has battled back to a 6-8 record with three more games remaining on the schedule.

In its last outing before the layoff, StU-SW trounced Harris 75-40 to gain a measure of revenge.

Gallatin does have ample reason for pride in his charges' improvement in recent games. StU-SW had begun the 1968-69 campaign by losing six of its first eight games.

Last year, the Cougars' first in varsity play, StU-SW finished with a 5-5 mark.

Team Has Jelled
Gallatin, in looking ahead to the three remaining games, also glanced back over the season and said he was pleased with the "dynamite signs of improvement" the Cougars have shown, particularly in their last five games.

"We really could have been 5-out-of-6 in our last six games," said Gallatin, whose Cougars did win four out of stretch.

He was referring to the disputed, overtime 91-90 loss to Harris Teachers at St. Louis on Jan. 22, when the Cougars had apparently won 89-79 in regulation time only to have a Rich Estington free throw disallowed by a disputed call.

In its last outing before the layoff, StU-SW trounced Harris 75-40 to gain a measure of revenge.

'found themselves' against McKendree when they scored an upset by winning there, 80-78.

McKendree had a 10-1 record that McKendree had won 12 straight games. It was a great morale-builder for the Cougars.

"The varsity squad," he said, and added with a laugh: "It helped my morale, too."

Kirkville on Schedule
In addition to their Saturday game this week, the Cougars have two other season-ending contests. On Wednesday, Feb. 19, they travel to Carlinville to play Blackburn College.

They close out the season at Kirkville, Mo., Saturday, Feb. 22, against Northeast Missouri State College, where Gallatin started his long and distinguished basketball career, making him one of the game's all-time greats.

A victory for the Cougars against Northeast Missouri, assuming that they get by both Sanford-Brown, would improve on last season's record.

Playing key roles in the Cougars' mid- and late-season surge have been East Alton's Gary Collins, Alton's Bernie Pitts, Venice's Essington, Belleville's Dusty Gregory, Stanton's John McDole, East St. Louis' Nino Faino, York's Gary Galt, Mike Moore, Rick Wilbert of Kirkswood, Mo., and team captain, Tom Dahneke of Oakdale, Ill.

Pitts and Essington are the scoring leaders for the Cougars, each carrying an 18-point-per-game average. Gregory has been making an average of 15 points a game, and has been of great value for his strong rebounding under both backboards.

Madisonians to Play
Sanford-Brown College, coached by John Campbell, includes two Madisonians, Leon Bland, 5-11 guard, the team leader in assists, and Travis Jackson, 6-2½, reserve center. Bob Moran, a 6-2½ forward, has been averaging over 31 points a game.

Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Coach Campbell has invited his 1968-69 players and their families as guests for Saturday's action. This squad won 20 games and included four Quad-cities players — Bob Simpson, John Simpson, Bob Haven, Larry Wortham and Carl Wortham.

Burglars Active Again; $1400 Loot Recovered

The theft of cash and cigarettes in a store burglary and recovery of $1400 worth of musical instruments in a tavern burglary highlighted Quad-City area crime activities since Monday. A Madison machine shop was burglarized for the second time in a week.
Burglars entered the Farm Fresh Store, 2320 Pontoon road, by tearing a hole in the roof on the west side of the building and dropping down into a storage room, the store proprietors reported to police Monday.
Police speculated the thieves may have used a telephone pole adjacent to the building or a long solid lying nearby to gain access to the roof. The report stated the burglars forced open a door leading into an office and removed an undetermined amount of cigarettes and rolled coins which were kept in a metal box.
They also removed a wooden petty cash box from under the register counter. The box was later found on the floor. The burglars apparently left the premises through a rear door.
Value of the cigarettes and cash taken was estimated by the owners at $400.
Police were investigating today a burglary at the Home of the Blues tavern, 1539 East 20th street in which thieves took musical instruments valued at $1400, most of which later were recovered by police on information obtained by the tavern owner, Richard Archer, 2635 Myrtle avenue.
Police said the burglary occurred Sunday night, or early Saturday morning, but was not reported by Archer until 5:45 p.m. Monday. Loot in the burglary included $80 in cash, a handmade electric combination guitar and a mandolin worth $1000, an electric mandolin worth $150, and two guitars in cases, each valued at $125. Entry was gained by breaking a window in a restroom on the north side of the building.
Several hours after the burglary was reported, Archer appeared at Venice police headquarters where he told officers he had received information from a source that the burglars were in a Venice residence. Accompanied by a Granite City officer, Venice authorities went to the address and found the combination guitar and mandolin and the other three instruments stolen in the burglary. A box of bar credit cards also was recovered, police said.
Also recovered was a tape recorder and an electric razor which police said was not lost stolen in the tavern theft. No charges have been filed in the case. A woman at the Venice address told police two men had brought the articles to her house.

Employment Level In State at Record

Record high job levels were set in Illinois during December 1968. For the 87th consecutive month the current month's employment total surpassed the level of the previous year's comparable month.

Nonfarm payroll employment rose to 4,383,400. State Director of Labor Barney Grabiec said this was 31,100 above the November 1968 figure and 82,700 above the December 1967 level.

At the end of 1968, the company had 2,490,442 shares of common stock outstanding. It presently has no preferred stock.

The board's action is subject to approval by stockholders at the company's annual meeting April 9.

The directors also approved a program for the company to purchase its common stock from time to time, not to exceed approximately 100,000 shares through 1970. The purchase program, which does not require stockholder approval, will begin after March 10, 1969.

Smith said the shares purchased would be available for employee stock options, possible future business acquisitions or other corporate purposes, without diluting the proportionate interests of present stockholders.

Editor Luce Made a 'Fortune' While Having 'Time of his Life'

"Time, Inc.—The Intimate History of a Publishing Enterprise, 1923-1941" by Robert T. Elson, New York, Atheneum, 300 pages, $10.

Reviewed by James S. Hart, associate professor in the Journalism Department of Southern Illinois University.

(Review published in the Daily Egyptian, STU Department of Journalism, Carbondale.)

In view of recent major changes effected in Time Magazine and the demise of the venerable Saturday Evening Post, this lively volume is especially interesting.

Undoubtedly, present management was following Henry Luce's tradition in that they faced up to problems resulting from sharper competition from Newsweek, loss of advertising and increasing impact of television.

Luce apparently was never afraid of change in his pell-mell rush to make magazine journalism history.

"Time, Inc." admittedly is an "authorized history" of the magazine, as early as 1924, ordered his staff to begin assembling material for such a history.

But because he made available company records and papers, the book is probably as objective as was possible for a company man to write.

Elson brings up such controversial questions as whether Time was too sensational or too cruel and "scandal-mongering," but he makes no judgments.

Much of Luce's philosophy of magazine journalism and much of the friction between staff members are aired through discussions of inter-office memoranda.

These seemed to be the favorite form of communication, especially at Life. A 14- to 20-page memorandum apparently was not uncommon.

Time was conceived in the freewheeling minds of Ivy League graduates—Luce and Britton Hadden.

At the time of its birth in 1923 (it took eight months to write the prospectus), it was an Ivy League publication—it was an Ivy League publication—written by Ivy Leagueers for an Ivy League trade.

50 YEARS AGO

FEBRUARY 13, 1919

The era when pork was four cents a pound is recalled in an 185-year-old account book found by H. C. Gerke, an abstractor, in the office of Madison County Clerk Calvin J. Blatter.

Granite City firemen gave a mugger in honor of Eugene King, a member of the department who is returning to duty here after receiving his honorable discharge from the U. S. Service.

Five Madison county keepers were indicted for gambling by the Madison county grand jury following articles on their wide-open games by the Press-Record, forcing officials to take action. However, haphazard methods permitted outside gamblers to get away.

From all appearances, the Granite City mayoralty nomination race on the independent ticket will be between Roland W. Griffith, city attorney, and Bert Hiedt, Second Ward alderman. Ed Mercer has considered running but is ill with influenza and will not be able to be up and about for some time.

25 YEARS AGO

FEBRUARY 13, 1944

An outdoor public skating rink will be provided at Wilson Park by flooding a shallow area, which has been scraped clean and leveled. The 125x500-foot section will be covered with water and allowed to freeze. Batches and firewood will be provided by the park district.

Mrs. Charles Pauly was elected as 1944 president of the First Presbyterian Church Woman's Missionary Society. Other officers are Mesdames Louise E. Mead, William Schooley, Walter Kerch, H. A. Bond, Gustave Karrer, George Malottki and J. C. Byers.

The latest war movie released by the government will be viewed by the local War Council at a dinner meeting.

Diversified Development Best for Pontoon Beach Area

(Excerpts from the newly adopted Granite City Long-Range Development Plan)

Planning District Five has as its boundaries Interstate 270 on the north, Illinois Highway 111 on the east, the Illinois Central railroad right-of-way on the south and the Alton & Southern railroad right-of-way on the west, including the vicinity of the village of Pontoon Beach. This district in all probability will be one of the fastest growing areas in the Tri-Cities region.

The major growth will be in new single-family houses. A significant proposed land use is the Planned Environmental Unit. It is intended that the area be developed with a mixture of land uses; however, the various land uses should be compatible and not produce conflict.

Combinations of land uses envisioned for the planned Environmental Unit could be mixed-family apartments, commercial activities and a possibly some light industry. During the planning period, now through 1985, it is recommended that three elementary schools be constructed in District Five in order to meet the needs of the mid-1980s population.

Presently, recreation facilities are inadequate in this area. However, during the next decade and a half it is recommended that two 10-acre playgrounds be established adjacent to the proposed elementary schools and that a 40-acre community park be located adjacent to Long Lake.

These would adequately meet the recreation needs of the 1985 population of District Five.

City Runoff Campaign Pairs Front-Running Alderman, Mayor Who Retains Wide Support

Would Nixon or Humphrey have benefited most from the votes that went to Wallace? We'll never know with certainty, but the two Granite City front-runners, Mayor Boyd and Alderman Donald Partney 3863) will get the chance April 1 to try for the 552 votes received in the primary by Waldo E. Schellenger.

Whether every February vote will find its way to the polls seven weeks later also will be tested. With the challenger leading the incumbent by 236 votes out of a total turnout of slightly over 85 per cent, undoubtedly will be working during February and March in the hope of adding to their support.

Alderman Boyd led in 19 of the 29 precincts, whose boundaries were flexible within their ward. In the 1958 election, Boyd won Five and Six, while Mayor Partney won in Wards Two, Four and Seven.

Although Schellenger, who was eliminated in the runoff election, had a large vote, his vote was large enough to prevent outright election of Boyd. The alderman had appeared headed for victory during much of the tallying of votes, but finished 139 votes short of the number that would have avoided a runoff election.

The vote reflects substantial sentiment for a change but also shows considerable strength for the incumbent despite opposition by many of the political "pros"—aldermen, precinct committeemen and the Granite City wing of the dominant Madison County Democratic faction.

The campaign period that remains could prove to be highly interesting and eventful.

Roses Are Red, Violets Blue; Send Me a Valentine or I Won't Like You

Because Illinois is the "land of Lincoln," and the Great Emancipator was born on Feb. 12, 1809, the month of February holds a special place in the hearts of Qu-Cityans.

And speaking of hearts, traditional observance of St. Valentine's Day tomorrow, Feb. 14, helps make the second week of February the most memorable. If any of our residents are unaware that the valentine season is here, they should read more Press-Record general and neighborhood social news; it has formed the theme of many recent meetings and parties.

Last other days in February be overlooked, we feel obliged to note that along with Groundhog Day, Candlemas and Washington's birthday, this time of year also includes Pancake day; the birthdays of William Henry Harrison, Susan B. Anthony, Arizona and Oregon; such "Weeks" as Brotherhood, Crime Prevention, Future Farmers of America, Electrical, Parcel, Engineers, Kraft and Frankfurter, Children's Dental Health and Pay Your Bills Week; Bowling Month and Heart Month; and Lent, the Mardi Gras and the Carnival in Rio.

NEWSPAPERS VITAL LINK BETWEEN POLICE, PUBLIC

To the Editor:

I very much want to commend Sheriff George Musso on his move to disseminate copies of police reports to newsmen. My years in police work, working with newsmen, make me appreciate the need in the sheriff's office for a good rapport with the media.

The press, the people, the churches and the schools should be as close to the work, viewpoints and problems of the police in their community as possible.

In a way, the policeman's job has become to sell themselves and their needs to the public.

Close honesty with the local news media will mean a strengthened feedback network between the people and the police.

1. People should be aware of police needs, events and data. Everyone who is a citizen can be part of the police network. Let everyone know what is happening and what they can look for.

2. The press, in close cooperation with the police, often has access to more information, contact and educated personnel than the police department alone can come up with.

3. Police reports often make contact and educate the public. The interest that is kindled by your newspaper in the few weeks just prior to the convention was evident by the attendance of 14 congregations in southwestern Illinois.

Our news department wants to take the opportunity to congratulate you and your staff for the way you have kept your give the agency a mixed rating on its past performance—great success in operating the Gateway Arch trains, attainment of efficiency and improvements at Parks Bi-State Airport, but failure in providing expanded bus service at decreasing cost. With still higher bus fares and reduced service looming ahead, the agency may be destined for lower public opinion ratings in the future.

That such appraisals are unfair is apparent when local mass transportation is viewed in the context of the general state of transit systems throughout the U.S. Where they still exist, such systems—unlike Bi-State—are usually heavily subsidized by taxpayers.

Aware that the mobility and privacy of passenger autos pose formidable competition for mass transit, particularly as routes become less comprehensive and as frequency of service decreases, the local agency has developed the world's largest fleet of air-conditioned buses for the benefit of its luxury-lounging customers.

In addition to the basic service between residential, school shopping and industrial areas, it has pioneered in developing express service to major entertainment events, alertly stressing the advantages of avoiding traffic and heavy congested downtown areas. The plan is being adopted to curb crime on buses.

Making such a positive, businesslike approach increasingly difficult to maintain is the two-way economic pull. Inflation has driven employee wages and equipment costs upward, but this in no way has diminished the emotional appeals for fares to be kept low, particularly for the poor and the aged. As "red ink" forces each new decrease in the service rendered, the revenue potential shrinks correspondingly; fares cannot be collected from a neighborhood no longer served.

Infusion of state or federal tax aid and innovations involving high-speed vehicles over private lanes or tax may brighten the outlook in the future. Eventually, large cities may have to ban autos entirely in some sections just to keep traffic from grinding to a complete halt.

In any case, when the ability of Bi-State to administer a proposed network of airports is considered, the discussion should not be confused by blaming unavoidable surface transportation problems on trying valiantly to make the best of a bad situation.

'Ignore It and It May Go Away' Won't Work in Regard to Inadequate Drainage

In the words of the song "Manana," whose theme is to put off chores until tomorrow: "We don't need a window on such a sunny day. A leak parallel might be. We don't need a storm-water sewer system during dry spells."

Drainage, one of the chief frustrations of citizen-government relations in this region, has been brought forth by the weather to extend this winter. It has saturated the ground and left water standing indefinitely on many fields, yards and streets, particularly in unincorporated areas. Sanitary drainage deficiencies add a serious health factor.

Human frailty looms large in considering the problem and possible solutions.

Some kind of administrative system is necessary for a network of pipe projects to be created. The East Side levee district, which has concentrated most of its projects in areas other than the central and eastern Quad-Cities, says it is willing to do more, but is distrustful due to past monetary waste. Namekoi township voters have voiced a similar lack of confidence in the way their officials have approached the subject.

Granite City seems best equipped to extend existing and scheduled drainage lines, but some people regard annexation to the city as unattractive, and a municipal referendum on comprehensive sewer improvements lost a short time before passage of the present limited drainage program.

Unless we can do two things, develop trust and control trust, for one of the most fundamental problems of civilization. Even then, major topography, design and financing challenges would remain.

But no matter how difficult, the imperative need for drainage dictates continued remedial attempts. The need is great even in dry weather, and the filth and inconvenience during and after rains can hardly be ignored by the thousands who currently are enduring them.

TIME FOR NEW BROOM IN MADISON OFFICES

To the Editor:

In April, the citizens of Madison will go to the polls to elect their representatives.

In most of the city offices, the present officials have been around for a long time. On some occasions the present administration has made good decisions.

In any case, there is constantly criticism. It is very questionable whether some of the present politicians really have their constituents' interests at heart.

"Time for a change" would seem to be a deserving political slogan at this time.

Opposition in political elections is the surest and safest way to assure the people of a change in leadership. It is not blindly taken for granted.

People actively participating in our local election would be a free society according to our democratic ideals.

Some new broom surely sweeps clean.

I think citizens of Madison

Silent American Urged to Speak Up

(Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge)

The "silent American" will be urged to claim his rightful share of attention as opposed to the voices of disruption and dissension at the annual Freedoms Roll-Call campaign Feb. 15-18.

The educational drive to point up the meaning, spirit and responsibilities of American citizenship will seek to inspire the "silent American" to speak up for what is right with America under the slogan, "Freedom—Use It, Don't Abuse It."

Anta Bryant is heading the campaign for the second successive year. She is the first woman to be chairman of Freedoms Roll-Call, sponsored annually by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge.

"The great mass of Americans must demand at least equal time with the forces of disruption," Miss Bryant believes. "The positive forces for what is best in American life deserve to be heard, too."

Freedoms Roll-Call messages will call upon all Americans to stand up and be counted on the issues, whether local, state or national.

Citizens unsure about what they can do are invited to send to Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pa. 19481, for a free copy of Freedoms Handbook, a guide for citizen action for individuals, organizations, corporations and communities in safeguarding American freedoms.

Freedoms Foundation, a non-profit, non-political, non-sectarian organization, was created to encourage understanding in a support of the American system of free men. General of the American Revolution, Dr. Elsworth is honorary chairman; James A. Farley is honorary president, and Don Belding, a co-founder, is chairman of the executive committee. Dr. Kenneth D. Wells is president.

The annual Roll-Call is one of the keystones in the Foundation's program of encouraging Americans to speak and act for freedom.

The foundation makes awards of cash, medals, citations and "pilgrimages" to historic Valley Forge to individuals, teachers, church groups and civic and patriotic organizations for outstanding contributions to a better understanding of the American way of life.

The Foundation maintains the American Freedom Center at Valley Forge, a complex of nine buildings and a museum, the Medal of Honor Grove. There are facilities to accommodate writers and teachers, and researchers participating in the Foundation's seminars, programs and workshops.

There is a $10 fee for filing. There may be additional costs, such as attorney's fees, although there is no rule preventing the taxpayer from arguing his own case.

However, win or lose, all expenses for contesting a tax bill are deductible as items on the taxpayer's net tax return.

Tax Court operates in a manner reminiscent of circuitriding. Though headquartered in Washington, D. C., the court conducts hearings all over the country.

Decisions are made by the judge and may be appealed to the U. S. Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court.

Another way to obtain a refund is by petitioning the Tax Court. If successful, he obtains not only the refund but 6% interest on the refund.

The method, effective Jan. 1, 1968, is designed to help the taxpayer contest his tax with as few delays and as little extra expense as possible.

Here is the way it works:

If the IRS feels that the taxpayer's own computation on his return falls short of his true tax, he will receive a bill for additional taxes.

If a settlement acceptable to both parties cannot be reached, the taxpayer will receive notice that he has 90 days in which to file an appeal.

At this point, the taxpayer has two options:

1. He can pay the additional money and then sue for a refund in U. S. District Court. If successful, he obtains not only the refund but 6% interest on the refund.

2. He can pay the additional money and then sue for a refund in U. S. District Court. If successful, he obtains not only the refund but 6% interest on the refund.

Air Board

postage and office supplies, $1000 for travel, $800 for allowances and $200 for preparation of the annual report.

Due by Feb. 28

The application is due in Washington by the end of this month. "We are making a three-year application with the $22,000 sought for the first year. In the application, we want to show the federal government we have a definite program and that the city is willing to provide additional funds for the work. This year's budget for air pollution control amounts to about $8500."

L. J. Komorny, yard manager of the Lipsett Steel Products Co. along East 23rd street, told the commissioners the Association of American Railroad Car Disassemblers is hopeful of securing a grant of federal funds to continue the research program launched two years ago to find other means of ridding steel boxcars of wood.

He said the association's grant application has been approved, but funds are not yet available. The 21 firms in the association plan experimental operations this year at a yard near Chicago. The two possibilities are a huge incinerator or dismantling the cars by the water jet method with pressure of 5000 pounds per square inch," Komorny said.

He submitted a report that showed Lipsett burned cars on 48 days last year in compliance with its variance that permits burning only when winds are not blowing toward the adjacent residential area. He explained that when burning starts, it is limited to two cars at a time in the event the wind shifts.

Employees at Lipsett
Lipsett currently employs 65 persons which soon is to be increased to 75. Komorny said the firm's largest customer is LaCade Steel Co., since Granite City Steel switched to basic oxygen furnace operations.

The six-month extension will expire next Aug. 10, and Komorny said he would appear before the board prior to that date with a report on progress made in the association research. He invited Prof. Hoelscher to view the experimental operation when it is started.

Prof. Hoelscher reported to the board that he was advised in a matter of a few hours of the emission of fiber at the Division plant of Miles Laboratories last Thursday morning.

Henry Bieniecki, board chairman, said he also was notified and was informed by company officials that steps are being taken to strengthen or redesign plate supports within the cyclone collector mechanism to prevent further such emissions.

"The officials of the plant are to be commended by the clean air board for their prompt actions in shutting down the mechanism when the defect was discovered."

Sampler Report
Prof. Hoelscher submitted the initial report for the high volume sampler devices. He explained the first report was inconclusive but that subsequent reports can be studied to determine problem areas.

The board now has stations at 21st and Iowa streets at Sacred Heart school, the city hall, the main fire station, Lake school and a 2001 Twentieth street. Another station is to be set up in the industrial area in the near future.

At the request of Commissioner Lance Callis, the board's technical secretary is to determine the cause of red dust emission in the vicinity of either the General Steel Industries or American Steel Foundries plant on Monday. Hoelscher said he has requested a report from Granite City Steel Co. on an emission of red dust on Feb. 4 in excess of limitations.

Commissioners present were Bieniecki, Macios, Sidney Womack, Samuel Whitner, Callis and Dr. Melvin Freedman, who was welcomed as a new member. Dr. Freedman advised Bieniecki that his wife, Mrs. Julia Freedman, recorder for the board, would be resigning since he was named to succeed Dr. George T. Wilkins.

"What's It All About?"

Two weeks ago I had the pleasure of showing a slide presentation and fielding questions about ADVERTISING to a group of students of the S.I.U. Campus in Edwardsville. You given this presentation many times before to various civic groups, but I have never heard a group so much. These students picked me some very interesting queries, none of which united of any inquiry. The one question that seemed to speak the most interest was, "How can ALL supermarkets have the LOWEST PRICES IN TOWN?" My answer was, "Have many supermarkets sell a quart of Miracle Whip or Spin Blend at 37¢, Half gallon of Ice Cream for 45¢, Heinz Sterilized Baby Food at 6¢, Pillsbury Flour at 39¢, for a 5-lb. bag or 37¢ for a 5-lb. bag of Colonial Sugar, Etc. These are day-old shelf prices. We can afford to give lower prices because we don't give trading stamps. How much extra can you save on our twice weekly Ad features, whether coupons or price cuts?" If you belong to a civic or church group, that might want to hear our ideas about Advertising... Just drop me a note in the mail. 1600 State St., Granite City, Ill. 62040 and I'll see when we can get together. Al Barnes, Ad. Mgr.

Recognizing the need for more suitable office quarters to house the activities of the Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council, the First Granite City National Bank has offered to donate to the council a 45-foot lot in the 1800 block of Edison avenue for use as a building site for a proposed new office building.

"The growth of scouting within the area served by the council has created a pressing need for expanded quarters," President Paul Lichtenberger of the First Granite City National Bank stated in making the presentation to G. Rollin Henn, council president, yesterday.

"We hope that this offer will provide the needed incentive to start a concerted drive for the funds necessary to construct a new building and that this proposed gift will result in the retention of this important activity in the downtown business area."

"As part of the observance of National Boy Scout Week and in recognition and appreciation of the unselfish dedication of the many thousands of adult scouts, who, over the years, have played a most important part in guiding the youth of our nation along the path of good citizenship, we are happy to make this site available to Cahokia Council," Lichtenberger said.

Board Decisions On Maintenance, Special Education
Retirement of Julius Baumberger as one of the three maintenance men of the Granite City school district was approved Monday night by the school board. A resident of 2723 Iowa street, he will conclude his duties on Feb. 28.
Supt. B. J. Davis and board members noted that Baumberger has been associated with the school system for 39 years, and it was decided to prepare a letter of commendation on the length and caliber of his service.
The maintenance staff also includes Ray Hadley and Rolan Harshbarger. Because most of the work is done in pairs, it was decided to replace Baumberger with two maintenance helpers.
The two positions will be bid, with selections based on qualifications prior to seniority. Factors will include familiarity with both steam and hot water heating plants, physical fitness, mechanical inclination, ability to work on ladders or scaffolds and willingness to report when needed.
Plan Preventive Maintenance
While most of the maintenance work is done on an emergency basis, it is hoped to give increasing attention to preventive maintenance.
Possibility of creating a maintenance supervisor post to develop a maintenance schedule is to be studied.
In addition to those designated maintenance workers, the maintenance and repair staff of the district also includes carpenters, painters, electricians, drivers and a portable classroom worker.
In other business Monday night the board decided to appoint of secretary to Dale Rea, assistant to the superintendent.
Record keeping and typing involved in our federal programs is becoming greater, and plan to have all federal programs under his direction, Supt. B. J. Davis said. "This means Mr. Rea will take on the additional work involved in Public Laws 874 and 815, the programs for aid to 'federally-impaired' school districts."

Board Decisions On Maintenance, Special Education
Retirement of Julius Baumberger as one of the three maintenance men of the Granite City school district was approved Monday night by the school board. A resident of 2723 Iowa street, he will conclude his duties on Feb. 28.
Supt. B. J. Davis and board members noted that Baumberger has been associated with the school system for 39 years, and it was decided to prepare a letter of commendation on the length and caliber of his service.
The maintenance staff also includes Ray Hadley and Rolan Harshbarger. Because most of the work is done in pairs, it was decided to replace Baumberger with two maintenance helpers.
The two positions will be bid, with selections based on qualifications prior to seniority. Factors will include familiarity with both steam and hot water heating plants, physical fitness, mechanical inclination, ability to work on ladders or scaffolds and willingness to report when needed.
Plan Preventive Maintenance
While most of the maintenance work is done on an emergency basis, it is hoped to give increasing attention to preventive maintenance.
Possibility of creating a maintenance supervisor post to develop a maintenance schedule is to be studied.
In addition to those designated maintenance workers, the maintenance and repair staff of the district also includes carpenters, painters, electricians, drivers and a portable classroom worker.
In other business Monday night the board decided to appoint of secretary to Dale Rea, assistant to the superintendent.
Record keeping and typing involved in our federal programs is becoming greater, and plan to have all federal programs under his direction, Supt. B. J. Davis said. "This means Mr. Rea will take on the additional work involved in Public Laws 874 and 815, the programs for aid to 'federally-impaired' school districts."
Psychologist to Move
In addition to the action on Baumberger's retirement, a resignation effective Feb. 7 was accepted from Richard Komm, St. Louis psychologist of the Granite City special education district, based at the Madison school board office. Granite City schools serve as the administrative district for the cooperative program.

Absentee Voting Opens in Special Senate Primary

Absentee ballots are available at the office of Madison County Clerk Eulalia Hotz for qualified voters who will be absent from the 53rd Senatorial District during the March 11 primary to nominate candidates for state senator, Miss Hotz announced today. Monday was the first day for voting by absentee ballot in the special primary.

Miss Hotz said three types of applications may be made: For the regular civilian absentee voter who will be out of Madison county on primary day; for the physically incapacitated and for members of the U. S. Services and their dependents who are traveling or stationed with them.

Last day for absent electors to apply by mail for an absentee ballot will be March 8 and March 8 will be the last day to apply for and vote an absentee ballot in the March 11 primary.

Miss Hotz said her office will be open from 9 a.m. until noon only on March 8 to permit absentee balloting.

Civilian and physically incapacitated voters who require to be registered, Miss Hotz said. Persons in the United States services or their dependents traveling with them need not be registered but must meet the requirements of one year's residence in Illinois, 90 days in the county and 30 days in the precinct of their legal residence which is the home address from which they entered service. The federal government provides applications at various military installations, or the county clerk's office will air mail an application to any service person upon request, Miss Hotz said.

Election laws also permit a relative of a United States service elector to file application for them, but specifies that only the father, mother, sister, brother or spouse are the only persons entitled to complete the application, Miss Hotz explained.

The application for a ballot to be completed by physically incapacitated must be notarized and the attending physician must complete an affidavit of disability on the reverse side of the application. The doctor's signature also must be notarized.

Since the March 11 special election is a party primary, voters will be required to ask for a Democratic or a Republican ballot. Democratic ballots will be pink and a Republican ballot will be blue.

The primary will be held in the four Quad-City townships of Granite City, Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau, plus the townships of Jarvis, Pin Oak, Edwardsville, Wood River, Alton and Godfrey, which make up the 53rd Senatorial District. The ten townships include 144 of Madison county's 186 voting precincts.

Filings to Open Feb. 26 in Area School Elections

Filing period for candidates who plan to seek election to school board posts in the three school districts of the Quad-City area will open Feb. 26 and continue through March 25. Withdrawal deadline for school board candidates is March 25.

School elections will be held in all three districts of the Quad-Cities—Granite City, Venice and Madison—on April 12.

Candidates must file nomination petitions with the secretaries of the boards of education of the districts.

Six school board members are to be elected in the April 12 balloting in the Quad-Cities, two in each of the three districts.

Expiring Memberships In Granite City District 5, expiring terms are those of Monroe Worthen and Arthur Metcalf. Both are urban board members. Metcalf is finishing an unexpired term to which he was elected a year ago.

Board terms of William Scagnone and William Varva expire on the Madison District 12 board, and in the Venice District 3, terms of Michael Leatherman and Fred Rumpf expire. Leatherman is now president of the Venice school board.

Last day for applying for absentee ballots by mail has been set for April 7 and April 9 will be the last day for voting by absentee ballot in person. Deadline for canvassing the school election vote and for new school board to reorganize is April 22.

Says Auto Inspection Law Would 'Gouge' Taxpayer

Opposition to an Illinois auto safety inspection law introduced in the legislature by House Speaker Ralph T. Smith (R-Alton) was voiced today by Robert Ford, assistant supervisor of Wood River township and a candidate for state senator of the 53rd Senatorial District in the March 11 special primary.

Ford said Rep. Smith's proposed legislation "is another unnecessary bill for the purpose of gouging the taxpayer and the already overburdened taxpayer and is a penalty against the law-abiding citizen who keeps his automobile in good repair."

Ford protested that the inspection fee of $4 "may not sound like much money to Rep. Smith, but if he were living on a $90 a month pension of Social Security he would feel the real pinch of this legislation."

Other Fees Raised

The senatorial candidate noted that "in the past year we have seen our automobile license fees raised; our operation license fees raised; we pay gasoline taxes which have been raised, pay personal tax on our cars, pay tax on tires and now we have proposed inspection fee of $4 per year."

Ford maintained that with several million transfer autos on the highways each year, such inspections will not do any good. He noted also that present Illinois motor vehicle laws which makes it unlawful for a person to drive or permit to be driven any vehicle not in a safe condition are adequate and that only enforcement is needed to achieve the same purpose that Rep. Smith seeks by annual inspection.

"What we need is enforcement of the present law and state and local police," Ford said. "The state and local police have the right to stop and inspect any vehicle it considers unsafe to be operated on the highways, although it is seldom done. I am surprised the insurance companies aren't required to inspect a motor vehicle thoroughly before they insure it."

Need 'Common Sense'

Ford said, "What we need in the legislature are 'common sense' laws that will protect the consumer and motorist; not a lot of revenue producing laws like the ridiculous gun owners registration law with a $5 fee or the safety inspection law which is supposed to cost $4 inspection fees which I consider legal extortion if this bill passes."

The candidate questioned the use of revenue obtained from such laws, noting that $60 million recently was transferred by the legislature to the general fund "and our legislators then raised their salaries from $9000 to $12,600. Gov. Samuel Shapiro vetoed their action, but they again brought up the issue in January and it passed."

"It is time the legislators started thinking of the people instead of themselves," Ford added.

GSI Promotes Remington, Lich

Thomas R. Remington has been appointed vice-president of operations of General Steel Industries, Inc., St. Louis, and Richard L. Lich becomes president of the Castings Division, Granite City, succeeding him, W. Ashley Gray Jr., GSI president announced Tuesday. The changes are effective Feb. 17. Gray said the post of vice-president of operations is a new position.

Remington, who also has been vice-president and general counsel of the corporation will have offices at GSI headquarters, One Memorial Drive, St. Louis, and certain GSI divisions will report directly to him, Gray announced.

Remington joined GSI in 1964, having previously been in the staff of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York. He is a graduate of Princeton University and holds a law degree from Harvard University.

Lich, who has been executive vice-president of the Castings Division, has also served as vice-president of research and engineering for GSI. He joined the company in 1949 and holds degrees from Washington University, St. Louis.

Veterans Disability Benefits Increase

Nearly two million veterans with service-connected disabilities received higher compensation checks this week from the Veterans Administration.

About 115,000 veterans with 100% disabilities received an increase in their basic compensation from $300 to $400 a month. For approximately 1,840,000 veterans 10 to 90% disabled, the increase averaged about eight per cent.

Those with 10% disabilities have had their compensation increased from $21 to $23 a month; veterans rated 20 to 90% service-disabled now receive payments ranging from $43 to $226 monthly.

Not increased are the extra allowances payable for dependent veterans rated 50% or more service-disabled.

Veterans seeking more information on their disability payments may contact their nearest VA office.

Ogilvie is welcoming Vann Edward Ford of 1212 Market street, selected as an outstanding Eagle Scout by the Cokesbury Mound Council to participate in the three-day observance.

Madison Eagle Scout Ford Meets with Gov. Ogilvie

Vann Edward Ford, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ford, 1212 Market street, Venice, was among 33 Eagle Scouts from Boy Scout Councils in Illinois celebrating "State Citizenship Day" in Springfield recently, and he met Gov. These Scouts and Explorers, selected by their councils for outstanding leadership qualities, had an opportunity to "take over" an important state elective or appointive office for the day.

Each representative had a chance to "campaign" for one of the eight elective offices. An election was held and the results determined which scout would fill each office. The

Craig Tarpooff 3rd Brother To Become Eagle Scout

Craig A. Tarpooff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Tarpooff, 1609 Clark avenue, was honored at an Eagle Scout Award ceremony Monday evening held at the Eagles Home.

He began his interest in scouting as a Cub Scout in Pack 22, Frohardt school, in November 1962. Harry Hillman was his first cubmaster followed by Leo Manogian. Trains as Cannoneer
Army Pvt. Robert J. McIntosh, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. McIntosh, 208 Broadway, Venice, has completed the basic field artillery (cannoneer) course at Ft. Sill, Okla.

The eight-week course, given at the U. S. Army Training Center here, is the last phase of instruction a soldier receives before being assigned as a crewman in a field artillery unit. Training includes the use and care of artillery weapons—from heavy machine guns to howitzers—as well as ammunition handling and communications.

Other programs offered at VTI are architectural technology, printing, commercial art, forest products technology, electronics, highway and civil construction, dental laboratory technology and various business studies. Graduates of two-year curricula are awarded associate degrees by the University.

VTI is located on its own campus ten miles east of Carbondale on Illinois 13 near Carverville. Aviation technology is housed at the Southern Illinois Airport between Carbondale and Murphysboro.

VTI, SIU, Carbondale, Planning Open House

Southern Illinois University's Vocational-Technical Institute will hold its eighth annual Open House on Friday, April 25, and Sunday, April 27.

The 1,500-student Institute offers training in 28 major areas ranging from aviation technology and electronic data processing to mortuary science and corrections and law enforcement.

Tours of classrooms and laboratories will be conducted from 9 to 5 on Friday and 1 to 5 on Sunday, according to Chief Academic Adviser Harry Soderstrom, open house committee chairman. All departments will have special displays and exhibits.

Previous speakers have been then-U. N. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg, former British Prime Minister Anthony Eden, former Belgian Prime Minister Paul Henri Spaak and Foreign Minister Thanat Kohman of Thailand.

The annual Stevenson lectures were established in 1965 by friends and admirers of the ambassador, who died in July of that year. Residents of central Illinois subscribed more than $75,000 to establish a fund for the lecture series which is intended to beckon world figures.

HHH to Speak in ISU Adlai Stevenson Series

Former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey has agreed to be the fifth speaker for the annual Adlai E. Stevenson Memorial Lecture at Illinois State University this spring. It was announced this week by the lecture committee. The lecture is tentatively planned for some time in April.

The address, free to the public, will be in the 900-seat ISU Horton Field House and is expected to be one of Humphrey's first major addresses since leaving office.

The appearance by the former Vice President and Democratic nominee for the Presidency last year will continue the tradition established by the Stevenson Lectures as a respected platform for world leaders and statesmen to express their views on controversial subjects said ISU President Samuel E. Braden, who is also president of the Stevenson Lecture Committee in Bloomington-Normal.

Eric Cunningham Sets AAU District Record

Eric Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cunningham Jr., 13 Frontenac, broke an Ozark AAU district record Sunday in the 500-yard free-style event at the Ferguson-Riverside YMCA Invitational Swim Meet.

The local youth, 14, smashed the record in 5:31 minutes, seven seconds faster than the previous mark set in 1967 by a St. Louis swimmer. Cunningham achieved the victory one hour after capturing a first place award in the 200-yard butterfly race.

A younger Cunningham son, Todd, ten years old, took two fourth place medals at the meet, in the 100-yard backstroke and 40-yard breaststroke events. Both boys swim during the winter months under the auspices of the East St. Louis YMCA and compete in summer-time with Paddlers Swim Club of Granite City.

Value Showdown:
Match these features against what competition gives you for the same kind of money, and you'll have a better idea why more people are buying Chevrolets again this year.

- Built-in "guard rails"
There's a strong steel beam built into every door of every 1969 Caprice, Impala, Bel Air, Biscayne, Kingswood Estate Wagon, Kingswood, Townsman and Brookwood. We call it a side guard beam, and it looks like one of those guard rails you see along the freeway.
- That's what it's there for: To guard you. To strengthen the door and put a more solid wall between you and the outside world.
- Not a glamorous feature. But you'll have to admit, worthwhile.
- Computer-selected springs
Maybe you'll order your new Chevy equipped to the hilt. Or maybe you'll order it with hardly anything on it. Either way, you're going to get your full measure of our renowned ride.
- Because we go to the trouble of programming each car's equipment load into an electronic computer. The computer then tells us exactly which springs to use, depending on the car's weight and the way it's distributed. Chevrolet, the only car in its field with computer-selected springs.
- Fenders inside fenders
We could have skipped this. (The other cars in our field do.) But we're as anxious as you are to keep your beautiful new Chevy looking beautiful and new.
- So? Up inside the regular fenders we've placed a second set. They do all the in-fighting. Catch all the splashed-up rain, slush and road salt. Stop the kicked-up stones.
- While your "outers" just sit there looking pretty.
- Astro Ventilation
The other two cars in our field give you air intakes down by the floor. So do we. We also give you two up on the instrument panel. And all four of them are adjustable so you can regulate the flow of air just the way you like it. Even with all the windows closed, you'll be comfortable inside. You get air without wind. Without noise.
- Astro Ventilates is standard, now, on all the big Chevrolets.
- The theft-thwarter
On the steering column there's a lock. Only Chevrolet has it. Chevrolet's field. You turn the key and it looks three things:
• Your ignition.
• Your steering wheel.
• Your shift lever.
- When you own a car this tempting, you don't dare take chances.
- Biggest standard V8 in our field
Ask any car enthusiast, he'll tell you: Chevrolet builds great engines. Especially V8s. And this year there are six great V8s available for the big Chevrolet. Standard: Our 235-hp 327-cubic-inch Turbo-Fire. Another thing: We've lowered the price of several of our bigger V8s along with our automatic transmissions and power disc brakes. Which makes it possible for you to buy a '69 Chevrolet for even less money than you could last year.
- Show us for our Showdown. You can't lose.
- Putting you first, keeps us first. Impala Sport Coupe

VA Guarantees 250,000 GI Homes Loans in 1969

The guarantee of 250,000 GI home loans in 1969 is now forecast by the Veterans Administration.

This is approximately 50,000 more than the VA estimated before the recent increase in the maximum FHA-VA home loan interest rate to 7 1/2%.

William J. Driver, administrator of Veterans Affairs, said the anticipated 250,000 loans will go far to meet the GI Bill home loan benefit requests of recently returned Vietnam era veterans.

"Currently," he said, "approximately 25,000 veterans a month are applying for GI home loans. The overwhelming majority are younger veterans who generally are not in a position to meet the higher down-payment requirements of most conventional loans."

"These veterans need and deserve the GI home loan program with the advantages of small or no down payments and long-term mortgages," Driver said.

The VA head reiterated the Administration's determination to check the spiraling of interest rates. However, he added, "the first priority had to be to restore the competitive value of GI home loan interest rates so that the certificates of loan eligibility issued by VA would amount to more than mere 'hunting licenses.'"

Driver said that in recent months the high and increasing discount rates charged by lenders have driven builders and owners of existing homes from the GI home loan market.

"With GI home loan interest rates again competitive with private financing rates throughout the country, we are hoping to provide loans for 50,000 more veterans who otherwise would have been frozen out of the home market," he added.

Under 1967 Amendment

Feb. 28 Deadline to Apply For Social Security Aid

Ralph Brasher, Social Security district manager in East St. Louis, Illinois said today that many people who first become eligible for Social Security benefits under the 1967 amendments to the law stand to lose some benefits if they don't apply for these benefits before March 1, 1969.

If a person applies for benefits after the month he first becomes eligible, he may receive the back benefits for up to 12 months before the month of his application. The new types of benefits were first payable for the month of February 1968. To be entitled to all back payments, a claimant must apply no later than Feb. 28, 1969, Brasher explained.

"If the person waits until March, he will lose one month's back benefit payment and each additional month's delay will mean the loss of an additional month's payment," he said.

Under the 1967 social security changes in the law, benefits may now be payable to the following:

1. Young disabled workers who previously didn't qualify for disability insurance payments because they had insufficient work credits;

2. Disabled widows and dependent widowers age 50-62; and

3. Children of women workers who were insured the time of their death, disability, or retirement, but who did not meet the recent work requirement.

Brasher said he is sure that there are some people in the East St. Louis area who may be in line for payments under the 1967 amendments, but who have not yet applied for them. He said that despite extensive publicity given to the amendments, some people still may not have heard about the changes in the law.

Brasher urged those who believe they or a member of their family might qualify for these social security benefits to get in touch with the social security office before the end of February. The office is located at 650 Missouri avenue, East St. Louis, and the phone number is 274-2200, Ext. 328.

Deadline March 31 for Unions to File Report

Labor unions in Illinois were reminded today that most of them must file annual financial reports with the U. S. Department of Labor before March 31.

The March 31 deadline applies to unions whose fiscal year ended Dec. 31, according to Martin E. Mayernik, area director for the U. S. Labor Department's Office of Labor-Management and Welfare-Pension Reports.

About three-quarters of the state's unions close their books for the year on Dec. 31. These unions have 90 days after the end of their fiscal year to submit reports required by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act (Landrum-Griffin Act).

Reporting forms have been sent to unions, and copies must be returned to the Labor Department in Washington, D. C.

Filing of reports under the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act is required from labor organizations and, under certain conditions, employers, labor relations consultants, union officers, and employees.

Unions with less than $30,000 gross annual income need file only one page form, LM-3. Those with receipts over that amount must use the longer LM-2 form.

Further information and assistance in completing forms may be obtained from the Area Office, Office of Labor-Management and Welfare-Pension Reports, U. S. Department of Labor, Room 773, Federal Office Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill. 60604. Telephone: (Area Code 312) 353-7264.

A/C THOMAS HARRISS Saves GI's Life

Airman Harris Cited for Heroism In Air Base Blast

Thomas L. Harris, a 20-year-old airman with his friend, known only as Paul, were credited with saving the life of another serviceman recently in Thailand, when a fuel truck exploded at an air base.

Harris, who is stationed at U-Tapao, Thailand, wrote in a letter to his parents, "I was standing near a wash rack where we had just finished putting a plane when we saw the 5000 gallon JP-4 fuel truck coming down the road. As it neared our position it left the road hitting a pole and turned over in a ditch. The pole held high voltage lines and caused a fire."

The two men ran to the accident, as a third man called the Job Control for more help. Harris and his companion pulled the driver out of the burning truck. As they were carrying him to a safer area, the truck exploded throwing all three to the ground.

Harris received a broken arm and the driver sustained two broken ribs as a result of the explosion.

JP-4 fuel used for KC 135's and B 52's is four times more dangerous than gasoline used in automobiles.

Both young men are to be recommended by their commanding officer for the Airman's Medal for risking their lives and have received a plaque from the Air Force in appreciation of their heroic actions.

Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Moody, 2332 Cardinal avenue.

A 1964 graduate of Granite City high school, he attended the McKendree College prior to enlisting in the Air Force in January 1968.

He underwent basic training at Lackland, Texas and was later stationed at Chanute Field, Ill., Minot AFB, N.D., and on Guam for three months while enroute to Thailand. He is presently training as an assistant crew chief.

The serviceman would like to hear from his friends. His new address is A/C Thomas L. Harris, 16983257, 4255 OMS Box 8396, APO San Francisco, Calif. 96330.

The birthday celebration was planned to honor members of the retired civil service workers group whose birthdays are in February and to observe the anniversary of the founding of the organization on Feb. 19.

Mrs. Edward Enney, wife of the president, furnished decorated cakes for the table decorations.

During the business session, Enney read communications received from Congressmen relating to tax laws and bills concerning retired people. A letter will be drafted and signed by all 39 members and forwarded to the lawmakers.

Howard Ballou, vice-president, was named to serve as program chairman for the remaining year.

The next meeting will be March 10 and the April 14 meeting will have Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson as guest speakers. They will provide the program with colored slides of their recent trips overseas.

Any used car that can pass the VW 16-point safety and performance test deserves our guarantee.

Anything that needed fixing was fixed. Before we gave the car our guarantee.

When a car has our 100% guarantee, it means we'll repair or replace all major mechanical parts for 30 days or 1000 miles, whichever comes first.

What kind of cars do we get as trade-ins on our new Volkswagens? All kinds. Fords, Chevys, Plymouths, even old Volkswagens.

Her husband, Francis David, died on Nov. 14, 1968.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Hubert (Frances) Richmond of Granite City; a sister, Mrs. Mabel Haering of St. Louis and three grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Hairdressers Annual Benefit Fashion Show Set for Sunday

Members of the Elite Hairdressers' and Cosmetologists Association, Affiliate 33, are preparing for the fifth annual "Fashion and Hair Style Show," to be staged at 2 p.m. Sunday in observance of National Beauty Salon Week.

"Tickets for the fashion and fantasy show at the Venice-Madison American Legion Dug-out, 600 Broadway, Venice, are priced at $1 for adults and 50 cents for children are available in advance from association members or at the door."

A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Madison County Heart Association, with the remainder to be used to further charitable and educational projects of the association. More than 500 people have attended each year.

Mrs. Dorothy Line, Affiliate 33 president, today noted that the National Beauty Association of Hairdressers and Cosmetologists has been dedicating National Beauty Salon Week to more beautiful women for the past 19 years.

"No spring hairstyles also are being given to women who cannot avail themselves of the benefits of professional beauty care, aesthetic, as well as psychological," Mrs. Line noted, explaining these are women who are confined to charity wards of hospitals, or homes for the aged.

Activities of Affiliate 33 this week included complete hair styling—permanent waves, cutting and styling—for 15 girls from the Maryville Children's Home, who were guests of the Affiliate Monday morning at a local beauty salon.

Affiliate this week honored the mother of the first baby born at St. Elizabeth Hospital during National Beauty Week by presenting her with a $10 gift certificate which she may redeem at any affiliated salon.

The new mother is Mrs. Martin Lee Vault, 3144 Rodger avenue, whose son, Scott Alan, was born at the local hospital at 6:13 a.m. Sunday, the day National Beauty Salon Week started.

"Crown Your Beauty"

"Crown Your Beauty with a New Hair Style" is the slogan of this year's national observance and the theme of Sunday's "Fashion and Hair Style Show."

More than 30 models will participate in the 2½-hour show which will feature new trends in hairstyling, with the models wearing styles from Rich's Ladies Apparel, 1302 Nineteenth street.

During an intermission, cookies, coffee and soft drinks, the latter donated by Pepsi Cola Co., will be served and there will be vocal selections by Miss Nina Dale of Granite City.

Foreign-Inspired Styles

The second portion of the show will spotlight "fantasy" hair styles by local hair fashion artists. Models will be gowned and coiffured in fashion depicting nations throughout the world.

Mrs. Sue Cook, general show chairman, said many of these coiffures require two to three hours.

Mrs. Valerie Stevens of Granite City, vocal music director for Madison schools, will be commentator for clothing fashions, with Miss Elizabeth Fischer of St. Louis, a past president of the Missouri State Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, describing hair trends.

Models will be introduced against a backdrop of valentine hearts and golden crowns. Background music will be furnished by Ron Matson, organist, of Granite City.

Hair stylists and models for the hair trends and fashion segment are:

Maurie Dickey, stylist, and Shirley Sanders, model; Jo Ann Rogas and Janet Krieger; Erma Hinton and Donna Durham; Carolyn Billelo and Shirley Swick; Jean Phelps and Nancy Dietrich; Rae Ann Long and Georgia Long; Dorothy Line and Martena Kirk; Madeline Eggerston and Sue Mix; Marcella Tucker and Dorothy Meng; Margaret Barzoff and Barbara Budde; Sue Cook and Carol Ann Daly; Judy Broshov and Brenda Roderick; Jolene Prewett and Nona Jarvis; Stanley Coleman and Yule Coleman; Erva Lee Hughes and Gisela

Lorch; Sheila Morgan and Mary Catherine Groshong; Diana Meador and Cindy Donaldson; and Earl Tucker and Donna Brunk.

Countries represented by fantasy coiffures, the artist and model, include:

Caribbean Islands—Sue Cook, artist, Donna Sue Duval, model; Japan—Judy Broshov and Freida Handlon; Russia—Margaret Barzoff and Janice Halbe; Scotland—Stanley Coleman and Linda Jones; England—Marcella Tucker and Sheila Morgan; United States—Dorothy Line and Phyllis Smith; India—Jolene Prewett and Roberta Robbins; Mexico—Erma Hinto and Rocky Rojas; Austria—Jo Ann Papa and Susan Geschwend; Spain—Rae Ann Long and Dorothy Line; and Germany—Maurie Dickey and Carolyn Farrell.

GC Soldiers in Arctic Training Maneuvers

Two Granite City soldiers are participating this week in Exercise "Acid Test I-Punch Card V," with the U. S. Army in Alaska.

The servicemen are Sp/4 Allen D. Charbonnier jr., whose parents reside at 2544 Edwards street, a mechanic in the 172nd Infantry Brigade (Mechanized); and Sp/4 David W. Newberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield D. Newberry, 3840 Lake street, who is a clerk in the 171st Infantry Brigade (Mechanized).

Major units of the U. S. Army, Alaska, and Alaskan Air Command Forces, plus Air National Guard units from several other states, are engaged in the mock battle operation which began Jan. 29 and will end Feb. 13.

The largest training exercise to be held in Alaska in two years is being conducted in the Army's maneuver area near Fort Wainwright. It is designed to test the effectiveness of combat troops operating in the arctic environment.

Under near-combat conditions, pitting "friendly forces" against "aggressor units," the ground soldiers are demonstrating their fighting efficiency in

TRAVELING BY AIR? CALL HOLIDAY SERVICE, 452-3131

A review of the program functions of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board under the new Air Quality Control Region being established by the federal government was presented Monday night to the commissioners by Theodore Macios, vice-chairman of the local board.

In his report, Macios stated the objective is to move forward with functions in a major effort, as the city board during the past year performed the necessary minimum requirements.

"It is hoped," Macios said, "that the technical secretary

(Prof. Erwin Hoelscher of Washington University) will be able to initiate a concerted attack on these functions during the next few months by utilizing the available assistance of a consulting firm. It is, of course, realized that a full-time inspector will be required for an efficient and effective program.

"The implementation of the recently purchased 'Hi-Volume Samplers' is top priority. The samplers are to be installed at strategic locations and the samples collected and analyzed on a predetermined basis.

Keep Public Informed
"The data should be recorded and graphically maintained, with periodic and timely reports issued to the Air Pollution Board and the public. Supplemental back-up data, such as wind speed, temperature and wind direction, are important to maintain for analysis of information.

"Adequate sampling programs for other pollutants (dust fall, oxides of sulphur, hydrogen sulphide, carbon monoxide, oxidants, etc.), should be devised and implemented as soon as possible.

"The soon-to-be-established 'Air Quality Control Region' will result in the establishment of air quality standards for these pollutants. Information on the existing concentration of these pollutants must be known before realistic emission standards can be established for them."

The vice-chairman noted that the Air Pollution ordinance of the city requires annual reports of the program accomplishments, activities and plans and that a combined 1967-68 report is being planned.

Issuance of Permits
He stressed that permits are required for pollution control activities. "Of particular importance is the work associated with the Air Pollution Board's approval of numerous industrial formal programs of abatement. An effective and efficient system should now be under way with the Air Pollution Board and the public informed on a timely basis. This is an important, if not most important, part of the abatement control effort. Consequently, this project is considered urgent."

Macios said, "Complaints from the public will occur, and progress reports of industrial abatement work will soon begin to be submitted. Inspection and investigations will most likely be required in connection with these actions. Appropriate plans should be formulated to effectively take care of such matters."

"Again, the Air Pollution

Board and public should be kept informed on a timely basis. "To provide satisfactory decision making criteria for future program changes, as well as the current program, a source and emission inventory project should be implemented."

"Plot plans of the involved industries should reveal location and identification of all discharges emitting air contaminants."

"In addition, the involved industries should be requested to furnish data in connection with the equipment, processes that emit air contaminants other than suspended particulates and appropriate inventory forms should be originated for this purpose."
